Celebration of Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

A thought-provoking was organised by the Cultural Committee to pay homage to Netaji on his birth anniversary. The programme was formally started by paying floral tribute to Netaji by the principal and staff of the college. The lamp was ignited in the memory of this worthy son of Mother India. The principal in his speech requested the audience to inspire by the ideologies and patriotism of Netaji. The authority highlighted the history of INA under the leadership of Netaji that constituted a significant chapter in Indian struggle for independence.

Addressing the gathering, Dr. R. Chanda highlighted the indomitable courage and determined mentality of Netaji who always believed in the ideologies of revolution and extremism. He put emphasis on continuous struggle for achieving his cherished goal. Lamenting on the sudden disappearance of Netaji from the global scenario, the speaker mentioned that mere appointment of various commissions failed to trace the real cause behind it and the event remains a mysterious one even today. Smti. P. Annesha recited a nice poem covering Netaji's indomitable courage and valour.

The programme was conducted by Dr. R. Chanda, the convener of the Cultural Committee.
